The Right Reverend Santosh K. Marray

The Right Reverend Santosh K. Marray joined the Diocese of East Carolina October 1, 2009 as Bishop assisting.

Bishop Marray is former Bishop of Seychelles. He was born in Guyana in the West Indies. He has served as a priest in the Diocese of Guyana, Diocese of the Bahamas and Turks and Caicos Islands and the Episcopal Diocese of Florida. In his pastoral ministry, Bishop Marray has served in a variety of parochial settings and has considerable experience in rural, multi-station parishes. The Diocese of East Carolina welcomed Bishop Marray as a guest last year to the Diocesan Convention where he preached Evensong.

Bishop Marray was elected third Bishop of Seychelles, Province of the Indian Ocean, and was consecrated on April 5, 2005. He served during a time of restoration for that diocese, and prepared it for the election of a successor who would serve a long term episcopate. Bishop Marray demitted office officially as Bishop of Seychelles on December 31, 2008. He has the distinction of being the first West Indian of East Indian ancestry to be elected and consecrated bishop in the Anglican Communion. Marray has also served in several leadership roles in the Anglican Communion at the request of the Archbishop of Canterbury. Marray has been married for thirty two years. His wife Nalini is a school teacher and they have two grown children, Ingram and Amanda.

Bishop Daniel is pleased by the addition of Bishop Marray to diocesan staff and is thankful for the wisdom and experience he brings to the mission and ministry of the diocese. Bishop Daniel is also pleased that with the presence of Bishop Marray, each congregation of the diocese will have an annual service of Confirmation and pastoral visitation from a bishop of this diocese.

Meditations from the Flower Guild

Taken from "God in the Garden" by Maureen Gilmer

Lord, help me to live according to the seasons of the sun. Thank you for making each day a little bit different, however slight its length may seem, so that living in the garden is a new experience each morning. Amen.

Meditation:

The desire to garden well is as strong for the experienced gardener as the novice because there is no end to what can be learned. However, this learning cannot be found in books but must come to a person after years of working with plants and with soil. In this, gardening is like self-knowledge and prayer, for we must speak frequently to God if he is to remain a familiar force in our lives.

Often our most important lessons come from mistakes made both in the garden and in life. Sometimes we suffer from the impact of our transgressions for years. Nothing takes the place of this experience, whether it is in cultivating our garden or turning the soil of the soul. And it is only through such practice and lessons learned that we will finally attain wisdom.

☺ STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION ☺

Did you know that Zeb Jones has been cutting the grass at St. Francis for over a year now?

By Zeb volunteering his time and talents, we have been able to save on the budget by not having to pay for lawn maintenance.

Thanks Zeb for all you do for St. Francis Episcopal Church!

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!
